

THE MIDHURST SOCIETY

MIDHURST: JUNE LANE / LAMBERTS LANE

June Lane
No 142

- II 21/87

Cowdray Estate number. Small early C19 farmhouse. Coursed Hythe sandstone and Midhurst stone set in galletting with ashlar quoins. Hipped tiled roof. Casement windows, those on the ground floor with pointed heads. Once pointed doorway now blocked and partly concealed by a modern porch.

Listing NGR: SU8815721928

Lamberts Lane
Lassiters Cottage

Listing Date: 18 October 2011
Grade: II
Source: Historic England
Source ID: 1403819

"In Lambert's Lane you will find an 'ironstone cottage' known as Lassiters, the only one of its kind in Midhurst." - (Bridget Howard, Midhurst Magazine Issue 29)

"The cottage was once owned by Cowdray Estate and was occupied by Lord Cowdray's chauffeur. When the chauffeur retired the cottage was given to him." - (anecdotal)

